Telegram to Governor Asks In- th quiry-Dr. Rohrer Promises

diste action

Dr. J. Ellis Rohrer, of 469 Sumner
Avenue, Brooklyn, chairman of the executive committee of the Depositors'
Association, sent the following telegram last night to Governor Whitman:
"The parole granted David A Sullivan demands investigation. The Depositors' Committee of the Union Bank of Brooklyn requests a hearing to submit charges regarding the conduct of Superintendent of Prisons Riley and the State Parole Board"

After filing the message Dr. Rohrer

After filing the message Dr. Rohrer declared that the depositors intended to fight the matter until they obtained on February 3 that Sullivan's parole had been passed upon favorably.

Had they been allowed the opportunity, Dr. Rohrer stated, the depositors would have opposed Sullivan's parole on half a dozen grounds. First, they then parole on half a dozen grounds. First, they allege, the sentence imposed upon him by Judge Crane of two years was exceedingly liberal; that there are four other indictments, charging him with the larceny of more than $300,000, hanging over him, upon which he has not been tried; that since he has been in Sing Sing he has been re-indicted for manufacturing more of the

The depositors would further have alleged that Sullivan destroyed. The depositors would further have alleged that Sullivan, while a prisoner at Sing Sing, sought to hinder the Kings County Grand Jury Investigation of his thefts by preparing on a typewriter in the prison office an appreciate to the Kings County Supreme Court restraining two Sing Sing employes from testifying against him. Dr. Rohrer also declared that they would have shown that Sullivan was directly responsible for the telephone messages to his wife and Miss Louise D. Burkhardt, his former secretary, urging them to leave the state when it became known that they were desired as witnesses before the grand jury.

Many of the items of this year's bill result from the extravagance of preceding Democratic administrations, but the greatest number were caused by Governor Glynn's veto of necessary appropriations to bolster up his economy appeal.
